

European HIV-Hepatitis Testing Week 2017! 17-24 November 2017

This year's European HIV-Hepatitis Testing Week will take place from 17-24 November 2017! Please SAVE THE DATE and join us. You can already now sign up on our website. Please note that if you signed up last year you do not need to sign up again. You can see who else has signed up, and if your organisation is already signed up here.

The European Testing Week Working Group had its annual meeting in London on 5 May to discuss the 2017 European Testing Week, its direction and content, and how to make the next testing week even better. Based on those discussions we are starting a few new initiatives and working on updating the website. The materials will be updated on a running basis and until the new ones are uploaded the ones from last year will be available for download and use here.

Get social with us!

As in previous years we will be communicating about testing activities, news, and the European Testing Week on Facebook, Twitter and our Facebook Group. As always we would love to hear about your planned activities and thoughts around this year's testing week. We are using the same hashtag #eurotestweek.

Meanwhile, we look forward to working with you in making the 5th European Testing Week a success, more soon. Stay tuned.
