

Last call to provide feedback on how to improve European Testing Week 2018

Earlier this month, we asked you to provide feedback via a short 5 question online survey on how you would envision European Testing Week 2018. This is the last week that the survey will be open so please be sure to complete the survey and share with us your ideas!

Deadline to complete our survey is this Friday, 31 August 2018. You can access the survey here.

Don't forget, after the deadline, we will review all of the submitted suggestions and create a poll for you to vote and decide on what we should do for European Testing Week 2018.
